

FACULTY BIO

Michael D. Hogue
PharmD, FAPhA, FNAP

Professor and Chair
Department of Pharmacy Practice
Samford University
McWhorter School of Pharmacy
Birmingham, AL

Dr. Michael D. Hogue is Professor and Chair, Department of Pharmacy Practice at Samford University McWhorter School of Pharmacy in Birmingham, AL. He has practice experience in managed care, community pharmacy, family medicine, and home infusion.

Dr. Hogue received his PharmD from Samford University in Birmingham, and then completed an Executive Residency in Association Management with the American Pharmacists Association (APhA) in Washington, DC. He has authored numerous articles and book chapters, including The Pharmacists Guide to Compensation for MTM Services, published by APhA.

Dr. Hogue is one of the original developers and staff educators for APhA's Pharmacy-Based Immunization Delivery certificate training program, and has been since its inception in 1996. Dr. Hogue is an active member of several professional pharmacy organizations, including APhA, the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists, and the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy. He served as the national President for the APhA's Academy of Pharmacy Practice and Management for 2011-2013 term. He currently is serving on the Board of Directors of the National Foundation for Infectious Diseases.